

Spiritual Alchemist

Born of an encounter between two artists, two continents, and two traditions.

ABin Chang and Stéphane Geiser each painted 7 guardian animals, each carrying two intentions.

This adventure gave rise to an exhibition in Taiwan from February 7 to April 8, 2026, as well as a grimoire-book where Western alchemy meets Eastern divine transformation, through 7 themes, each painted by us.

Origine _____ l'empreinte au centre

An intimate journey, to the depths of oneself, or rather toward oneself. 36 stages / mandalas in search of their center.

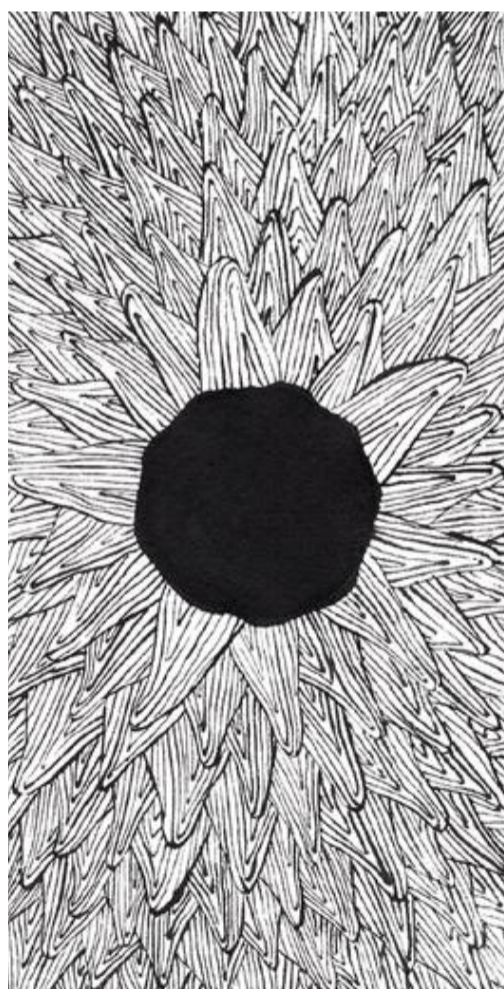

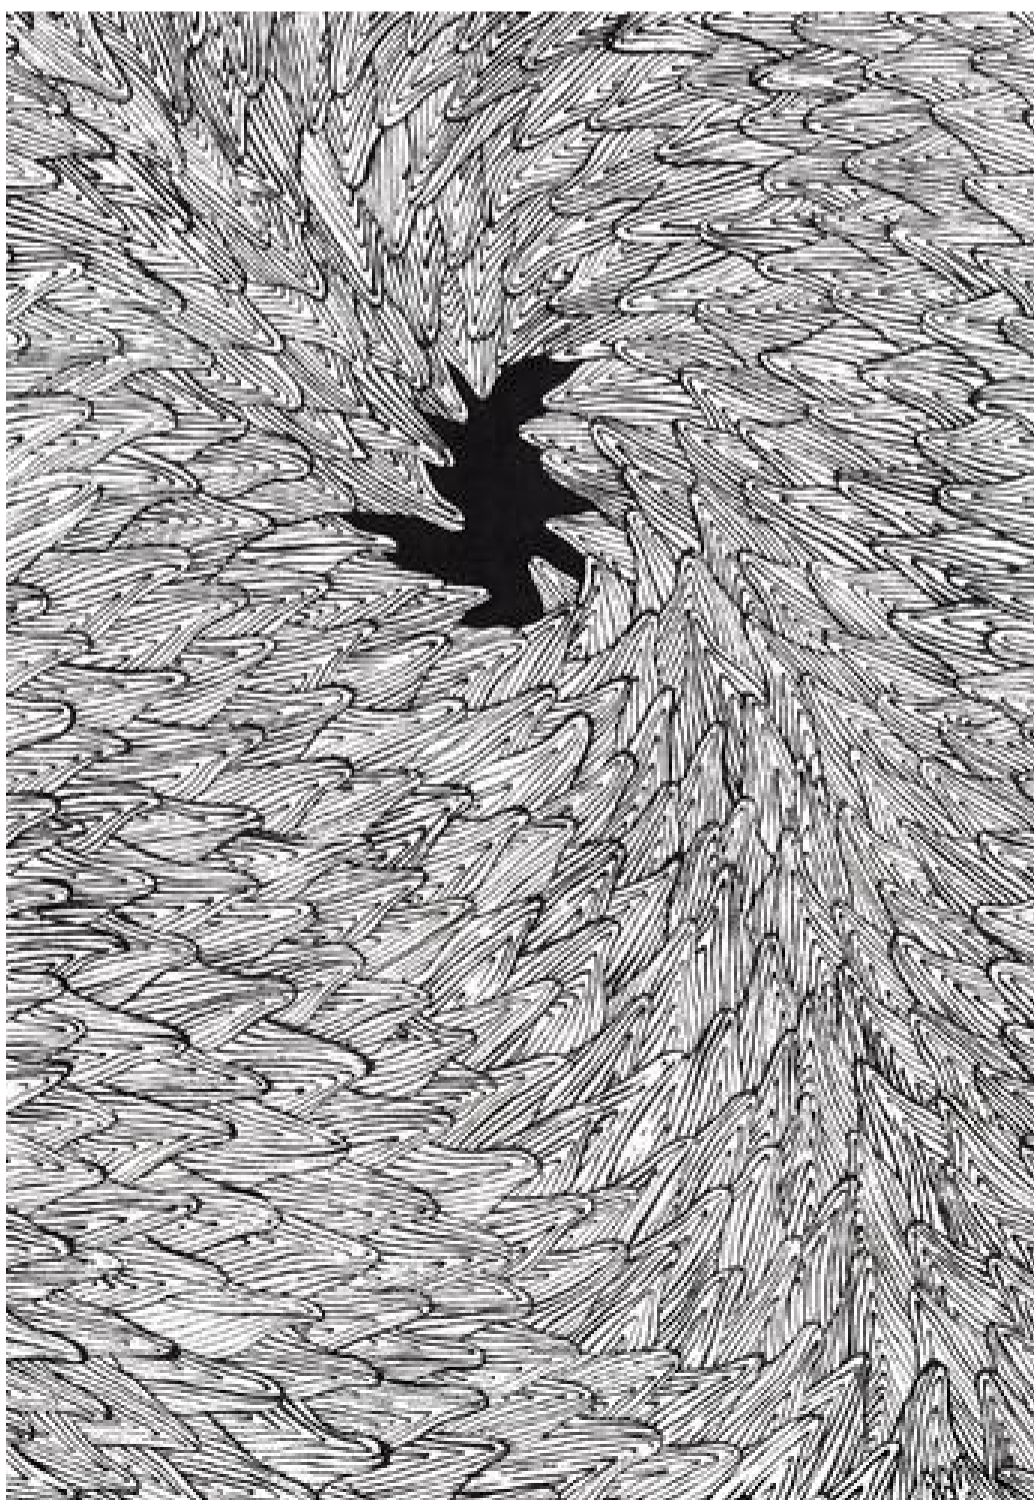

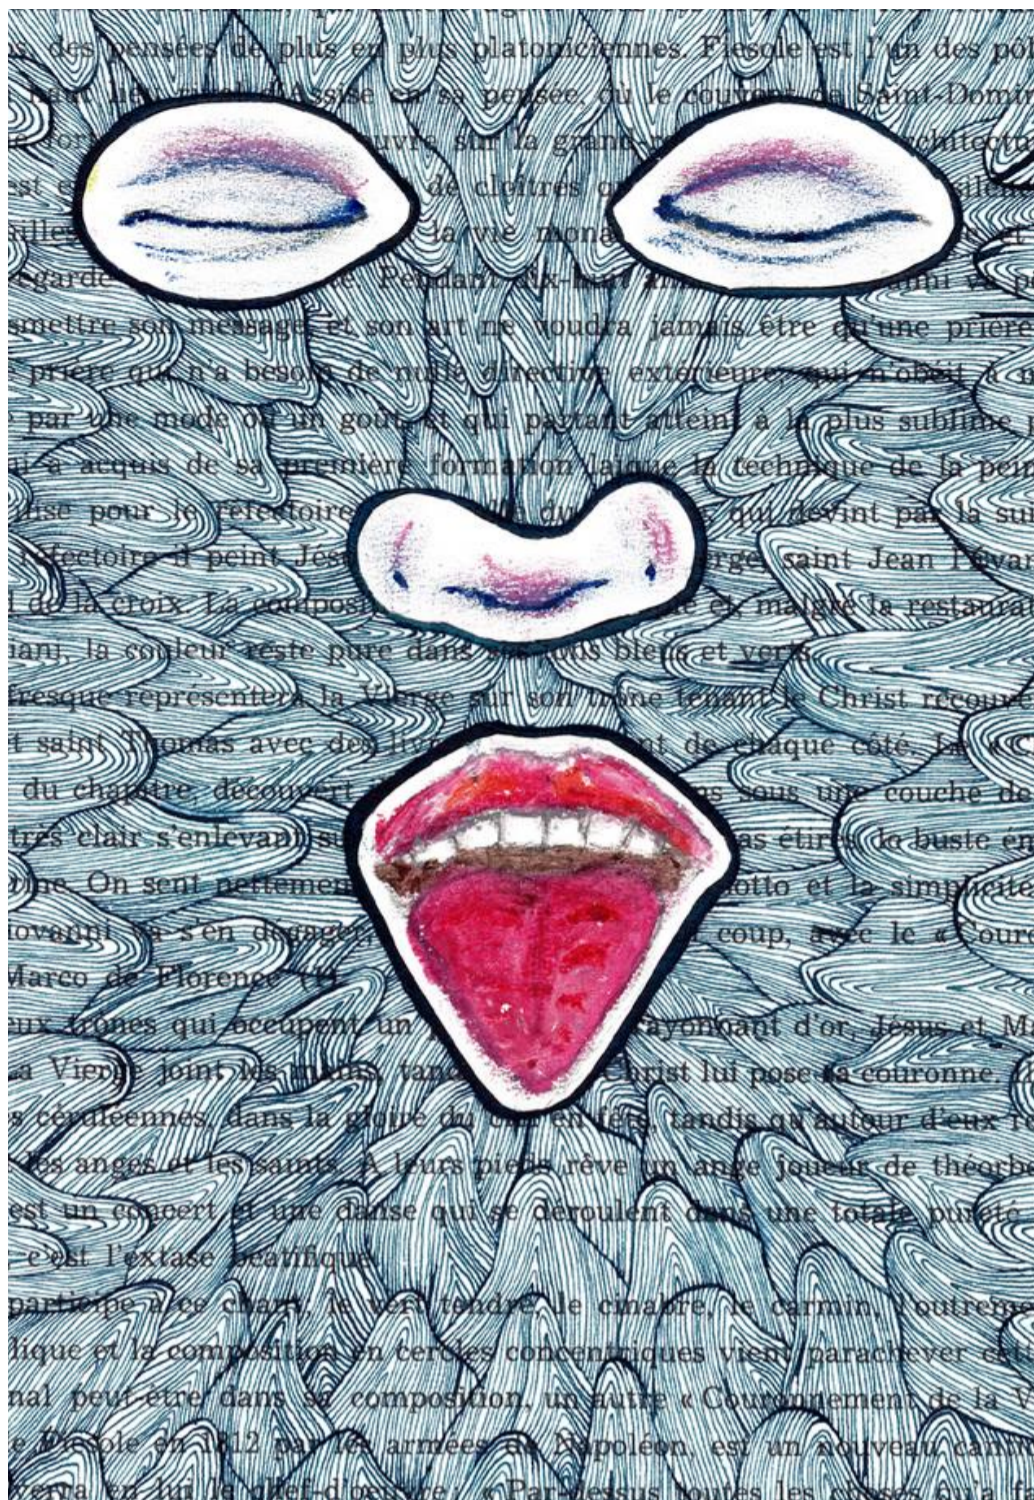

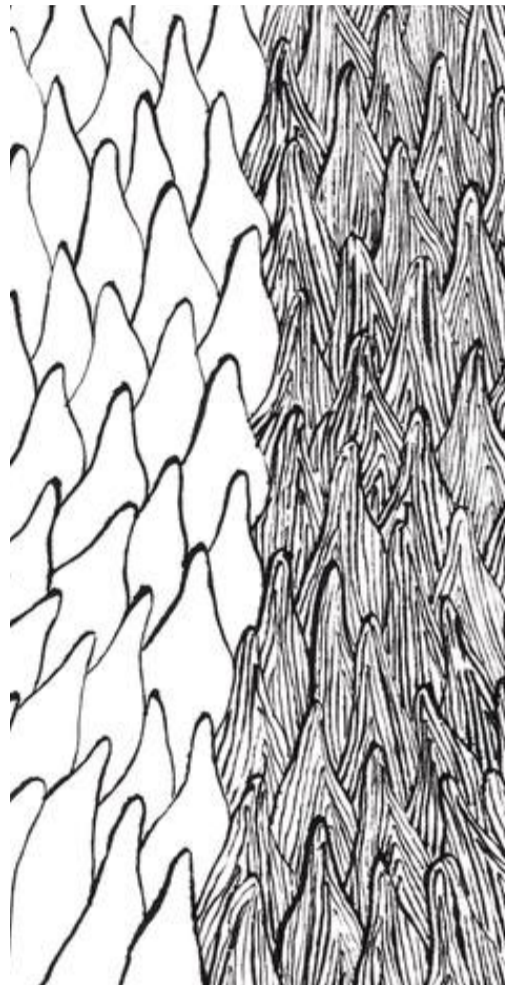

Sometimes, the unacceptable tears the stars from our eyes. Yet, offering one's gaze to uncertainty revives the beauty of the world.

Mots étouffés

From all these words that strangle my throat, I suffocate, from all these intentions absorbed into my body, I close myself off.

But from a spark, I accept myself and let the flow gradually resume its course.

These words that held back my breath transform, their sounds become gentler, their intentions more beautiful.

I rise, and slowly the syllables sing upon my skin until they finally come out, liberated.

Stencils

Cette série de dessins à l'encre de Chine, découpés en pochoirs sur papier à calligraphie, est née de l'envie de créer des t-shirts.

Chaque pièce est unique et produite sur demande.
